Maximize Title I Funds with Ellevation

Ellevation Platform and Ellevation Strategies enable districts to meet critical EL accountability and professional development requirements under Title I. With the passage of ESSA;

- Accountability for ELs: Requirements for ELs shifted from Title III to Title I, emphasizing accountability for EL students' attainment of English proficiency, EL academic achievement, and EL academic growth.
- Collaboration Across Programs: Title I mandates collaboration with other programs and services, including those for ELs, ensuring integrated support for students.
- Professional Development: Title I mandates professional development as part of Schoolwide and Targeted Assistance Programs.

How Ellevation can help:

ESSA Requirement	Our Solution
Accountability for ELs	Ellevation Platform: Provides essential tools that support districts to meet EL accountability measures under Title I.
Collaboration Across Programs	Ellevation Platform: Enables collaboration and integration across various programs, supporting both academic achievement and English proficiency for ELs.
Professional Development	Ellevation Strategies: Provides research-based professional development to any educator of EL students, meeting Title I professional development requirements.

Purchasing Ellevation Using Title I:

Education regulations allow districts to reserve Title I funds to invest in tools like Ellevation Platform and Ellevation Strategies to meet school improvement goals and foster cross-program collaboration.

We've successfully helped thousands of districts across the country navigate their Ellevation purchase using a variety of funding sources - including Title I, Title II, and Title III.
